THISARU DILHARA

UI/UX Designer/Frontend Developer

PROFILE

As a passionate UI/UX designer and front-end developer, I am dedicated to creating visually appealing and user-friendly digital experiences. Currently pursuing a BSc in Information Technology at the Sri Lanka Institute of Information Technology (SLIIT), I have honed my skills in design principles, web development, and user experience research.

I am actively seeking an internship opportunity where I can apply my creativity and technical skills to real-world projects, collaborate with a dynamic team, and further develop my expertise in the field. With a strong foundation in front-end technologies and a keen eye for design, I am excited to contribute to innovative projects that prioritize user satisfaction and aesthetic excellence.
